

How does the CED Fit into Current Economic Development Efforts?

The CED exists to complement and lend support to the efforts of the Rockingham County Economic Development.

What Will the CED Do?

The mission of the CED is to focus substantial private sector financial resources and leadership on specific economic development projects to attract, retain, and expand investments in order to expand economic investments bolstering economic growth and job opportunities in our Community.

For What Type of Projects Does the CED Need Support For?

- Optioning and/or purchasing and/or developing real property.
- Small business assistance.
- Professional planning and development services.
- Assistance in attracting new business prospects to Rockingham County.

The membership determines specific projects to be completed based on the projects importance to the community and on the availability of funds. For certain projects, the Board of Directors may ask the membership for additional contributions or pledges.

Who We Are

CITIZENS FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, INC., (CED) is a private, not for profit organization, to provide funding for such economic development projects as may be deemed beneficial to the citizens of Rockingham County. Meetings of the full membership are held once a year. The Board of Directors meets monthly. Anyone can be a member of CED. If you are willing to make a personal or corporate contribution to the greater good of our community, we would appreciate your assistance.

Reasons to Join

1. "Working Together Works."
2. CED is a board-based, continuing positive force for change. Your membership is a voice of confidence in the future of Rockingham County.
3. A healthy economy means increased personal buying power, improved educational opportunities, better and more cultural opportunities locally.
4. The CED offers a vehicle through which your contributions along with those of your fellow citizens can directly affect a positive change.
5. Your contributions through annual membership will go directly to projects aimed at improving Rockingham County's local economy
6. "We're sowing the CEDs for a brighter future for your family and your business".
